Couture Fashion Week Fall 09...

Posted in Uncategorized at 3:05 am by DFR

Couture Fashion Week New York came to the Waldorf Astoria Hotel's Starlight Roof this past weekend with designer collections, models, and an audience from all over the world with a huge international press turnout. It was a fun and impressive event much more intimate than @ Mercedes Benz Fashion Week and I was able to see designers I never had seen before.

Some very beautiful and unique creations by Soucha Couture of Egypt, Dany Atrache' of Paris & Lebanon, Linda Ellis of Australia, as well as the producer of the event and designer

Andres Aquino. Plus many more amazing designers over the three day event.

Mahealani Diego designed all the makeup looks using M.A.C. cosmetics, from classic to outrageous, with her superb crew of makeup artists. And the hair was created by Federico Calce and his excellent team from the Federico Salon NYC.
