Uncle Tom's Gabbin'

Couture Fashion Week-New York came to the Waldorf Astoria Hotel's Starlight Roof last week. There were designer collections featuring unique creations by Souha Couture of Egypt, Dany Atrache' of Paris and Lebanon, Linda Ellis of Australia, as well as the producer of the event and designer Andres Aquino, models and an audience from all over the world with a huge international press turnout ... Honolulu's very own Mahealani Diego designed all the makeup looks, from classic to outrageous, with a creative crew of makeup artists. Hairstyles were created by Federico Calce and his excellent team from the Federico Salon NYC.
