CHAN:

This past Friday, the last day of New York's Couture Fashion Week was held at the Waldorf-Astoria. Here's what we found.

STORY:

Diverse and creative designers from Croatia, South Africa, Colombia, the Bahamas, and Australia to name a few, made their United States debut. Directed by Andres Aquino, the week of shows was attended by hundreds of people including VIPs, diplomats, upscale store buyers, was a great success. Miranda Greene's colorful and beautifully designed handmade hats topped off the show. And so, from hats to accessories, and from evening gowns to casual wear, we have the 2007 spring season covered.
