Couture Fashion Week

A Fashion Feast in New York City

In September 2007 Couture Fashion Week New York exceeded all expectations and delivered the largest and most distinguished audience of socialites, diplomats and VIPs during New York Fashion Week at a single event. Read more...

From the electrifying performances by award-winning violinist Alexander Markov and the Masacote Dance Company to the intricate garments by international fashion designers hailing from all corners of the globe, the shows were a feast for the senses held at the Westin in New York's world-famous Times Square and the exquisite St. Regis Hotel.

The fashion collections were as creative and versatile as the variety of designers and the countries from which they hail. See photos from the shows.

The next Couture Fashion Week event will be held in New York in February 2008.

Other upcoming events include a couture fashion show in December 2007 as part of the grand opening of the Desmond Tutu Center in New York City, and couture fashion shows in Palm Beach in December 2007, among others.
