Nedret Taciroğlu's Kybele Collection at the Waldorf Astoria

September 13, 2009

Ex-model – turned famous designer – Nedret Taciroğlu's spring 2010 collection "Kybele" was showcased through an extravagant show at the luxurious Waldorf Astoria Hotel. The 30 pieces from her new collection reflects the Goddess Kybele's power of abundance by the use of pearls and gems on large skirts.

There were many VIPs from the fashion industry on hand to view the remarkable collection which in Nedret's own words brings forward the powerful, elegant and modern young women of the 21st century. The pieces were mainly of light pastel tones; blue, pink, white chiffon; and consisted of glittering fabrics.

So who exactly is this Goddess Kybele? Well, the goddess of Anatolia is the symbol of immortality, rebirth, abundance and nature. All we can say is that Kybele flaunted her attitude in extreme style on the catwalk at the Waldorf through Nedret Taciroğlu's amazing collection.
